FIND MINER DEAD ON LONELY TRAIL

Superintendent of the Home Copper Co., at Clifton, Dies Prospecting.

Clifton, Ariz., April 19.—N. L. Jenkins, superintendent of the Home Copper company, operating about three miles west of Morenci, was found dead about 200 yards from the camp. His body was found on a lonely trail and he had probably been dead for several days, from all indications. The result of the inquest was to the effect that deceased had expired from natural causes. Mr. Jenkins was an old-time prospector and mining man and had been in the Clifton-Morenci district for a great many years and was a conspicuous figure as one of the old line of prospectors fast being depleted in this section of the country.

C. E. Mills, superintendent of the Detroit Copper company, and H. S. Vandorfer, manager of the Phelps-Pledge Mercantile company, of Morenci, were in attendance this week at the meeting of the Clifton Water & Improvement company.

C. P. Dunn, of the firm of Dunn & Loomis, druggists, and a member of the board of supervisors, has returned from a month's business trip to Los Angeles and California points.

Mr. Waldo, for several years connected with the Detroit Copper company at Morenci, and now foreman in the Arizona Central mine of that company, is spending a few days in Clifton on business.

Mr. Hummel, of Los Angeles, arrived in Clifton the first of the week and is now watchmaker and repairman for Dunn & Loomis.

E. H. Webster, a York rancher, and wife are spending some time in Clifton with friends.

J. M. Erickson, the Morenci insurance man and attorney, is in Clifton on business.

C. E. Tyler was in Morenci on business.

Walter Hutchins, the Twin Peaks commissary manager at Tork, and St. Basserman, manager of the store at the Twin Peaks mines, spent several days in Clifton on business.

W. C. Crawford, who is now residing on his ranch at Guthrie, is in Clifton and Morenci this week on business and incidentally renewing old acquaintances having been a resident of this district for a great many years.

SPINAL MENINGITIS CLOSES A SCHOOL

Pupil in San Jacinto School Dies of Disease in a Few Hours.

San Jacinto school was closed Friday morning and will remain closed until Monday morning in order that the building may be fumigated. The reason for this action is that a new case of cerebro spinal meningitis developed there Thursday, the victim being Carl Holzman, 14 years old, of 1615 San Antonio street, who died of the disease Friday night, following an illness of one day.
All of the school children were warned to use their nose and throat sprays to avoid contagion. No other schools have been closed and no other cases have developed.

A shipment of 100 cans of smoking opium which was smuggled across the border near El Paso has been seized by custom officials in Los Angeles and two men who are believed to be the consignees, have been placed under arrest there.

H. S. Creighton, connected with the special agent's office here, but stationed at Nogales, Ariz., received information that the opium shipment was about to be made to Los Angeles where it was to have been distributed among the Chinese smokers. He went to Los Angeles on the same train and arranged for the arrest of the men who were to receive it there.
